Note from Mrs. Montgomery

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Happy Spring! This season of renewal always brings a fresh sense of energy to our school, and this year is no exception. As we move into these final months, our calendar has quickly filled with meaningful events, celebrations, and opportunities for our students to grow and shine. With so much happening, we want to encourage your active participation. Your presence at events, performances, and celebrations makes a significant impact—not just on your own child, but on our entire school community. When families and staff partner together, our students benefit in the best possible ways. Please take time to check the Ram Report regularly and plan to be involved wherever you can.

As we approach Teacher Appreciation Week, we also want to invite you to join us in celebrating our incredible teachers. They give so much of themselves each day to support, challenge, and care for your children. A simple note, kind word, or small gesture goes a long way in showing gratitude for the difference they make.

Thank you for your continued support, partnership, and investment in our school. We are grateful for each of you and look forward to finishing the year strong—together.

With gratitude,

Julie Montgomery

MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

June 5th at 11am is Graduation for K, 8th, and 12th grade.

If you have a graduate and are planning to attend, reach out to JMontgomery@foundationsk12school.org to sign up to bring finger foods to share. We are also looking for a volunteer to make a graduation sheet cake. We appreciate your help and participation.

Living Faith Out Loud
Deuteronomy 6:6-7

There's something powerful about the rhythm of this passage. It reminds us that faith isn't meant to be confined to Sundays, but woven into the everyday moments of life—at home, on the go, and in the routines of each day.

God's instruction begins in the heart. As parents, the most meaningful way we shape our children's faith is by allowing His truth to take root in our own lives. What fills our hearts naturally flows into our words, choices, and example.

We are then called to impress these truths on our children—not through perfection, but through consistency. Simple, intentional moments—prayers, conversations, and recognizing God in daily life—make a lasting impact.

As partners in your child's growth, we encourage you to embrace these moments. Together, we can show our children that faith isn't just something we talk about—it's something we live every day.

Shine On, Charli
